

Home Mechanical Ventilation (HMV) UK Meeting

8 July 2022

etc.venues County Hall, London /
Online attendance also available

The HMV UK Meeting provides a multi-disciplinary network for established clinicians and healthcare professionals that are either caring for patients dependent on home mechanical ventilation, or that have an interest in continual care using highly advanced specialist technologies. The meeting offers an invaluable opportunity to learn more about the latest advances in the management of children and adults with chronic respiratory failure.

Highlights for 2022 include:

- Key note: Prof. Anita Simonds “The highs and lows of NIV”
- How to continue HMV through a pandemic “looking backward to move forward”
- Specialist weaning centres in the UK “how and why”
